LOOTING BY MISSIONARIES CHARGED BY FRENCHMAN

Savage Attack on Europeans Made in French Chamber of Deputies.

Activity of Boxers Renewed and Assassinations Reported From Various Districts-Troops on the Alert.

Paris, Dec. 27.—In the chamber of deputies today, Marcel Sembat, radical socialist, representing one of the districts of the Seine, called attention to the reports of cruelties on the part of European troops in China. He said the French soldiers were no further from the reports of the Russians. They had in their heads.

The minister of marine, M. De La-pessan, replied that the government had ordered an inquiry, and would se-erely punish all the guilty parties, but is a consolation he was able to say that the French soldiers had been much barbarous than those of other na-nued, had ordered all the articles sent y General Frey to be returned to hina and restored to the Chinese gov-

New York, Dec. 27.—A dispatch to the Journal of Commerce from Washington says:

The interstate commerce commission will render as early a decision as possible on the important cases before them in regard to the difference in charges on carload lots and on fractions of a carload. The case has been postponed until April 15, when the final testimony will be taken. It is expected that the arguments will immediately follow and that the issues involved can then be taken up by the commission. The case has attracted wide-spread attention among railway men and shippers because of the novel points involved.

The issue is made principally by a leading hardware company of St. Louis, but has the support of the "Business Men's League of St. Louis." It involves a considerable class of hardware and grocery siripments, in which St. Louis firms come in conflict with New York firms and with the jobbers on the Pacific coast. The main contention of the St. Louis shippers is

WIDOW OF LYNCHED MAN IS AWARDED AN INDEMNITY FROM THE SHERIFF

CASE INVOLVING MOUNTAIN FREIGHT

Chicago, Dec. 27.—Mrs. Lulu C. Jenkins, now of Chicago, has been awarded a $4,000 for the lynching of her husband in Ripley county, Ind., three years ago. The money will be paid over by the eight bondsmen of Former Sheriff Henry Bushing and is the result of a private settlement of the indemnity suit instituted by the widow three months after the murder. This puts an end to a case that has aroused attention all over the United States.

William Jenkins was one of five men leged complicity in the stealing of a horse from Lisle Levi, an aged soldier of Osgood, Ind. Levi also was a victim of the mob. The men killed were she brought suit for $5,000 damages against Sheriff Bushing's bondsmen decided to settle outside of court.
